We would also like to say good luck to those who will be competing in Cardiff with Arts and

Sporting Successes

We are very proud of all our pupils who take part and compete in different sporting activities including football, rugby, netball and cricket. Congratulations to all!

Wales All-through Schools Pupils Conference

Some pupils from years 6 and 9 attended this conference in Cardiff where they had the opportunity to take part in a variety of activities with other pupils from 3-18 schools as well as the chance to present in Ty Hywel. A very worthwhile experience!

Anni Trip

Some of the cast of the school's production of Anni went to see the show in Chester last month. Thank you very much to Mr Carwyn Evans for organising the trip.

Sports Hall Competition

All year 6 pupils took part in the Sports Hall competition with the winning team going on to compete in the next round. Well done to you all!

Comic Relief

The school succeeded in raising £498.25 towards the charity. Many thanks to all who supported the cause.
